

A Vision for Health Equity: Applying a Health Equity Lens to Dissemination & Implementation Science

2018 Dissemination and Implementation (D&I) Short Course

November 1 & 2, 2018

Dejope Hall: Lake Mendota Room 1165
University of Wisconsin-Madison

The D&I Short Course is a forum for researchers and community stakeholders to explore the emerging field of dissemination and implementation with national and local experts.

Visiting Professors

Leopoldo Cabassa, PhD
Director, National Institute of Mental Health
Training Program
Center for Mental Health Services
Washington University in St. Louis

Russell Glasgow, PhD
Director, D&I Program
Adult & Child Consortium for Health Outcome
Research & Delivery Service
University of Colorado

UW-Madison Faculty

Sheri Johnson, PhD
Director
University of Wisconsin
Population Health
Institute

Jane Mahoney, MD
Associate Director
Institute for Clinical &
Translational Research
Community-Academic
Partnerships for Implementation Science

Andrew Quanbeck, PhD
Assistant Professor
Department of Family
Medicine & Community
Health

<https://ictr.wisc.edu/dni-short-course-2018>

The D&I Launchpad is a program of the Community-Academic Partnerships (CAP) component of the UW Institute for Clinical & Translational Research (ICTR)

Dissemination & Implementation
Launchpad
INSTITUTE FOR CLINICAL & TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Short Course Agenda

This year's Short Course will provide a forum for researchers and community stakeholders to explore the emerging field of dissemination and implementation science through the lens of health equity with national and local experts. It will include interactive discussions that navigate the steps from concept, design, adaptation, and implementation in practice.

Day 1: Thursday, November 1, 2018
Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
7:30am – 8:00am	Continental Breakfast / Registration
8:00am – 8:15am	Welcome & Introduction to D&I / Short Course	Jane Mahoney
8:15am – 9:30am	Plenary 1: Health Equity in Wisconsin Dr. Johnson will talk about the fundamentals of health equity as well as the state of health equity in Wisconsin, the social determinants of health equity, and the importance of community engagement in improving equity.	Sheri Johnson
9:30am – 10:45am	Plenary 2: D&I Science: Key Issues and Health Equity Dr. Glasgow will discuss how D&I Science can help improve health equity with attention to context and the balance between adaptation and fidelity. Examples of innovative D&I design with the RE-AIM and PRISM Frameworks will be discussed.	Russell Glasgow
10:45am – 11:00am	BREAK
11:00am – 12:15pm	Plenary 3: Humble Engagement An expert panel will discuss their experience and recommendations for successful engagement with communities to design and disseminate interventions that impact health equity.	Expert Panel
12:15pm – 1:15pm	Networking Lunch
1:15pm – 2:30pm	Plenary 4: Reframing Implementation Science to Address Inequities in Healthcare Dr. Cabassa will discuss how we can address health inequities in healthcare by examining the current limitations in health disparities research and how implementation science can help overcome these limitations. He will also present examples of practical ways to integrate implementation science and health disparities research and discuss future directions in implementation science and health inequity research.	Leopoldo Cabassa
2:30pm – 3:45pm	Poster Session / Networking Time

Day 1: Thursday, November 1, 2018

Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
3:45pm – 5:00pm	Plenary 5: Funding for D&I Health Equity Research Seasoned researchers will discuss current funding pathways for D&I Health Equity Research.	Expert Panel
5:00pm	Adjourn

Day 2: Friday, November 2, 2018

Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
7:45am – 8:00am	Continental Breakfast
8:00am – 8:15am	Welcoming Introduction
8:15am – 9:30am	Plenary 6: Pragmatic D&I Research: RE-AIM and Health Equity Dr. Glasgow will discuss pragmatic research and how frameworks such as RE-AIM and PRECIS are used to accomplish its goals for health equity. Examples will be presented using each of the frameworks.	Russell Glasgow
9:30am – 10:30am	Plenary 7: Bridging Implementation Science and Cultural Adaptations of Health and Mental Health Interventions. Dr. Cabassa will hone in on the process of tailoring interventions to different cultures as he defines cultural adaptation, describes common approaches, methods, and strategies and introduces ways to integrate implementation science. He will also present how he uses the collaborative intervention planning framework to adapt health interventions.	Leopoldo Cabassa
10:30am – 10:45am	BREAK
10:45am – 12:00pm	Plenary 8: A D&I Health Equity Case Study	Expert Panel
12:00pm – 3:00pm	Lunch and Small Group Discussion Sessions Registrants who submit grant proposal, project idea, or scaling up innovation abstracts in advance will meet in small groups with faculty members to discuss pertinent questions.	Leopoldo Cabassa Russell Glasgow Sheri Johnson Jane Mahoney Andrew Quanbeck Abram Becker

Conference Details

Location: Dejope Hall: Lake Mendota Room 1165

Address: 640 Elm Drive, Madison, WI 53706

Visitor Parking: Observatory Drive Ramp Lot 36 (1645 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706) - Rates

Questions: Please contact D&I Program Manager Melody Bockenfeld at bockenfeld@wisc.edu

Registration & Course Information: 2018 D&I Short Course

Hotel Information

There will be a block of rooms available for D&I Short Course attendees at the Best Western Plus Inn Towner at 2424 University Avenue, Madison, WI 53726.

RESERVATION TYPE: INDIVIDUALS WILL BE MAKING THEIR OWN RESERVATIONS.

Individuals may call the hotel directly at 608-233-8778 or go online to www.InnTowner.com/reservations to make reservations. Use the group code, UWDI, in order to receive the conference rate of $122. Room rates are subject to all applicable taxes. Please note: This rate(s) is not guaranteed after the room block release date.

ROOM BLOCK RELEASE DATE: 10/4/2018

Any unused rooms in your block will be released back into hotel main inventory on 10/4/2018. Rooms may still be reserved after this date, based on availability, at prevailing room rates.

PAYMENT TYPE: INDIVIDUALS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL CHARGES INCURRED.

Individuals will be asked to guarantee their reservations with a Credit Card. The financial obligation lies with those who are making their own reservations.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Individuals must cancel their reservations at least 24 hours prior to check-in on their date of stay to avoid the penalty charge.

UW ICTR CAP Dissemination & Implementation Program

<https://ictr.wisc.edu/Dnl>

Follow D&I on Twitter:

@UWICTR_DandI

Tweeting at the 2018 D&I Short Course?

#NavigateDnl