

UW Carbone Cancer Center
Wisconsin Initiative to Reduce Rural Cancer (WIRRC)
Community-Engaged Research Workshop
Monona Terrace Conference Center, October 31, 2019

AGENDA

8:00-9:00	Light breakfast, check-in, networking
9:00-9:15	Welcome by Cody Fredrick Overview of the Day by Diane Doberneck Participant Introductions at tables
9:15-10:30	Community-Engaged Research: Definitions and Examples Participants will come away with an understanding of what community-engaged research is and is not, spectrum of participation, and examples from along the participation spectrum
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-12:00	Partnership Building for Community-Engaged Research Participants will come away with ideas for partnership and coalition building, tools for identifying those who might not be at the table, and ideas for shaping research agreements
12:00-1:00	Working Lunch , WIRRC Leadership Team Report
1:00-2:30	Listening, Reciprocity, and Ethics in Community-Engaged Research Participants will come away with ideas about how and where to listen for community-identified ideas about needed research; the importance of reciprocity, and ethics related to community engagement.
2:30-2:45	Break
2:45-3:30	Opportunities for Community-Engaged Research Participants will come away with a list of funders who fund community-engaged research, especially health and cancer research in rural communities; and plan for matching their projects and partners with potential funders.
3:30-4:00	Closing Comments and Evaluation Announcements: pilot funding opportunity